16. Ms. McGriff was meeting a friend that evening to celebrate her 40th birthday.

17. A police van drove up to Ms. McGriff and defendants demanded her identification. Ms. McGriff complied and provided the same.

18. For no known reason, defendants directed Ms. McGriff to wait for her friend across the street. Plaintiff complied and waited across the street.

19. The defendants approached Ms. McGriff again, and without probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe she had committed any crime or offense, began to search her purse.

20. Defendants handcuffed Ms. McGriff and put her in their van.

21. While in the van, Ms. McGriff asked that the cuffs be loosened as they were cutting off the circulation to her hands. Defendants laughed and tightened the cuffs.

22. Ms. McGriff was taken to the 75th Precinct.

23. When Ms. McGriff asked defendants why she had been arrested, defendants assaulted her, forced her into a cell and left her there cuffed.

24. At the precinct the officers falsely informed employees of the Kings County District Attorney's Office that they had observed plaintiff in criminal possession of a controlled substance, and prepared false paperwork to that effect, including an arrest report.

25. At no time did officers observe plaintiff in possession of a controlled substance.

26. While at the precinct, Ms. McGriff became ill and was taken to Brookdale Hospital Medical Center where she remained for approximately four days, under arrest and handcuffed.

27. On or about February 19, 2013, Ms. McGriff was taken back to the 75th Precinct and then eventually taken to Brooklyn Central Booking.

29. Ms. McGriff made several criminal court appearances before all charges against her were dismissed in their entirety.

30. Within ninety days after the claim alleged in this Complaint arose, a written notice of claim was served upon defendants at the Comptroller's Office.
